Submitted to H.H.

THE PALACE,

MYSORE.

2.10.14

(243) T.P.-1.2 2.10 pm.

My dear Meiza.

Thanks for your note. You have always been so scrupulously careful to let me know everything of importance that I felt sure that his omission, which I complain of, must have been unintentional.

You must allow for some natural annoyance, on my part, at his very uncomfort-able

Submitted to H.H.

a bomb!

She am writing a very pacific letter to Brick in reply although (I hope for the sake of his own pardon me if I am wrong) I do not think that I have been guilty of such a heinous offence as he would make out

THE PALACE,

MYSORE

(246) T.P.-1.2 2.11.14

My dear Meiza.

I have just been for pm 2/11 a wet drive to Government House to meet his Resident. (You told me that he was coming today). I learnt from Venkataya that you had informed him yesterday that his Resident had put off his visit. I cannot think why I was not told this, and I should be glad to hear his reason.

What Vs Kantarp. must think of my position in H.H. his Maharaja's Counsels
I can only imagine! -

Yours truly,

R. Clarke

I shall rs. have worried yr kindness just now, but which might probably from ch at the Stables tomorrow morning & give Vent. to all his pent up feelings against.
me. Seizing this nice opportunity as he perhaps thinks!

position in which I am placed.
Now I am too good friends to quarrel over a pure mistake, I can assure you that this episode is buried, as far as I am concerned.
This is bad news about Turkey & Odessa - I cannot understand what the Turks are up to. Of course it will all depend on Germany, who is doing her utmost to stir up trouble for us in Egypt,
India & South Africa

Yours truly,

R. Clarke